Demorest .- The May issue of Demorest's Monthly Magazine is exceedingly rich in literary articles, and is decidedly one of the most attractive numbers we have set had of this instructive and entertaining publication. "The Admiral's Ward" is concluded, and a new story "Out of the World" begins very pleasantly. Among the masy praiseworthy articles may be mentioned: "Art in its Infancy," "The Farm of Elowera," "The Bayeux Tapeatry," "The Mannish Young Woman," "The Record of Women," and "An English Glove Factury," Jenoie June gives another of her articles, 'How we Live in New York," and Mrs. Hungerford turnishes some useful information about "Weddings." Home Art and Home Comfort," Current Topics," and the various departments are all good. The poems in this number are by 'L Inconno," Elia Dietz, Miss E. B. Chersborough, Augusta De Bubna, Mrs. Wilson, and Sirs. Mary E. Nealy. The illustrations are varied and excellent, and include a fine oil picture called "The Trio." There is no magazine better adapted to the household than Demorrent's and its moderate price makes it available to all. Monthly Magazine is exceedingly rich in liter-
